

The C A S E of Edward Douglas, Deputy Muster-Master to the Two Old Marine Regiments.

TH E said Edward Douglas having been appointed Deputy Muster-Master to the Two Old Marine Regiments, pursuant to his Majesty's Establishment; And having served as such, till the said Regiments were broke, viz. till the First of October 1698. And there having been a sufficient Provision made by this Honourable House for the Payment of the said Regiments, as appears by the Votes of the Tenth of March 1697, wherein this Honourable House hath given for the Pay of the said Two Marine Regiments, the Sum of Fifty five thousand Five hundred and Twenty Pounds, which Sum is more than His Majesty's Establishment, by Thirteen hundred and Sixteen Pounds and Ten Shillings: Notwithstanding which, the said Edward Douglas is neither admitted into Half-Pay, nor paid his Arrears.

And further, That one Mr. Aylmer (a Boy of about Thirteen Years of Age) was appointed Deputy Muster-Master to the Four Marine Regiments, altho' wholly Incapable of performing the Duty of the said Employment; And is at this time upon the Establishment for Half-Pay.

The said Edward Douglas therefore Humbly desires, he may be admitted into Half-pay, (as the Commissary and the other Deputy are;) Or that he may be paid his Arrears out of the Sum of Fifty five thousand Five Hundred and Twenty Pounds, Provided by this Honourable House, as aforesaid.

1699.

THE
CASE
OF

Edward Douglas, Deputy Master-Master to the Two Old Marine Regiments.

not paid his Arrears and Edward Douglas is further advanced Bonds and Ten Shillings: Now what regiment's Establishment by Thirteen hundred and Twenty pounds, which sum is more than given for the pay of the said Tw Tenth of March 1697, wherein this Ho of the said Regiment as appears by it then made by this Honourable House is October 1697. And there having been a all the said Regiment were paid six Establishment; And having Marine Regiments, and having and Deputy Master-Master to the said Regiment, and having the said Edward Douglas is desired, he may be admitted (as the Commission and the

for that he may be admitted sum of fifty five thousand and twenty pounds provided table House as aforesaid.